JUDGING PANEL

Darien Marion-Burton is the Executive Director of the Oak Park River Forest Chamber of Commerce, a true dynamo with a passion for community development.

Darien's career path is a testament to his versatility and unshakable determination. He began by making waves in higher education, dedicating himself to diversity services. His unwavering commitment then led him to the world of retail, where he swiftly rose to the top, achieving exceptional sales figures at the renowned Nordstrom. But Darien wasn't done challenging himself; he ventured into the dynamic realm of FinTech, where he showcased his adaptability and knack for leadership.

In 2018, driven by an entrepreneurial spirit that couldn't be contained, Darien established his own venture, D.M. Burton. His dedication to excellence and innovation quickly made his brand synonymous with success.

Outside of his impressive professional journey, Darien has a multifaceted life. He enjoys the camaraderie of hosting and attending dinner clubs with his close-knit circle of friends. Even in his downtime, his passion for marketing shines through, as he often finds himself analyzing marketing statistics while sipping his favorite drink at a cozy bar. And when it's time to unwind, you'll likely find him on his couch, sharing a moment with his loyal and cherished puppy, Travis.

With his diverse experiences and unwavering commitment to community, Darien Marion-Burton is set to lead the OPRF Chamber to new heights, fostering growth, collaboration, and inclusivity in the vibrant Oak Park community.
